

The Center for Contemporary Art, Sacramento (CCAS), founded in 1989, is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement and appreciation of new and experimental art by international, national and regional artists.

EXHIBITIONS

CCAS makes a unique contribution to the Sacramento cultural landscape by exhibiting work that expands traditional art boundaries. CCAS's exhibitions are featured in newspaper and magazine reviews published in Artweek magazine, the Sacramento Bee and Midtown Monthly.

EDUCATION

CCAS has extensive educational art programs for the entire community, including informal gallery talks, lectures, discussions and films.

EVENTS

CCAS is more than a contemporary art center. CCAS's social events create opportunities for friends, families and colleagues to unite for special occasions. Consider creating your own memories by renting the museum for your own private event. In addition, CCAS's artist receptions are a great way to join the public in celebrating the artists exhibiting at CCAS.

HOURS

Thursday – Sunday, 12 to 5pm;
Second Saturday of each month, 6 to 9pm.

North American Reciprocal Museum Program

As of 2007, CCAS is a member of the North American Reciprocal Museum (NARM). Members that join at the $100 level or higher are eligible for the benefits* of NARM. Privileges include:

- ▶ Free admission during regular museum hours to almost 300 other select NARM museums in the United States and Canada
- ▶ Discounts* at NARM museum shops
- ▶ Discounts* on NARM museum activities including, but not limited to lectures, films, concerts, workshops and classes.

* Some museums restrict benefits. Discounts are equal to the discount given to the members of that museum.
