

“ sharing the art of our times ”™

Dear Arts Community Member:

As you know, Center for Contemporary Art, Sacramento is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement and appreciation of new and experimental art by international, national and regional artists. We accomplish our goal of promoting the appreciation of contemporary art in the Greater Sacramento Region through exhibitions, lectures, Art Camp! and the ever increasingly popular Capital Artists' Studio Tour.

In order to support a full schedule of exhibitions, lectures, trips and other activities for next year, CCAS needs your support at the 2013 Benefit Art Auction. Our annual auction is our most important fund raising event and critical to our operation.

We are very pleased announce that work will be featured at the Elliott Fouts Gallery, one of the preeminent art venues in the Sacramento area, during November culminating in the auction the night of November 23. Additionally, David Sobon, who has become a standard at the Benefit Art Auction, will once again be our auctioneer.

We will be offering a “cash-and-carry” option during November's Second Saturday- if a patron wants to purchase a silent auction work, they may purchase the work and take it home during the event.

CALL FOR ARTISTS

We respectfully request that you donate a piece of artwork for the 2013 Benefit Art Auction to be help on November 23.

Important Dates and Details:

- Art drop off will be now through October 30, 2013 at CCAS (Wednesday-Sunday, 12-5 pm). If you are unable to drop off your work during these hours, please contact CCAS. Please complete the Donation Form and attach it to the back of your piece during when you drop off your work..
- Please complete the online submission form (link at ccasac.org). If you are unable to complete the online form, hard copies will be available at CCAS. This information will be used for publicity and at the auction.
